

Meet Us Face to Face—
We Will Treat You RIGHT

IDEAL

LOW CUTS
For Women

Our shoes are always up to date. Every pair made to wear.

Beatty & Long

112 West Center Street.

See Our Window For Sacrifice Prices.

Home Sliced Beef

We have the real old-fashioned home sliced beef. It has that real old-fashioned taste.
We slice it while you wait any thickness you like it. It is interesting to see it done.
Come in and see our slicer work.

PRICE PER POUND 30c.

Robinson's Grocery

Phones 39. 209 E. Center St.
Agency for Woods Boston Coffees

RED and BLACK

"RASPBERRIES"
Will be in Market tomorrow. Also a full line of

"VEGETABLES."

* 7 Deliveries *

BOTH PHONES

F. J. LUSCH
GROCER.

N.E. Cor. State & Center Sts.

TURNER'S SATURDAY MARKET

Red Raspberries
Black Raspberries
Black Berries
Dew Berries
Currants
Goose Berries
Red Plums
Good Watermelon
Good Cantelope
Sweet Oranges
Ripe Bananas
Cauliflower
Wax Beans
Telephone Peas
Cucumbers
Oranges

Many other good things to mention.
Give us your order we can fill them satisfactory.

Chas. Turner & Co.

We Build Houses for the People

We plan your house and build it complete. We have built many houses in Marion and will be glad to show you. Come in and talk it over.

South Side Building Supply Co.

LONG LIFE NOW ENDED

Mrs. Elizabeth Young Dies
Friday Evening.

ONE OF OLD RESIDENTS

Death Comes After Illness of a Few Days.

Uraemic Poisoning Causes Demise
at Home on Vine Street—Survived by Six Children.

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Young, one of the oldest residents of Marion county and for 16 years a resident of the city, occurred at her home No. 125 Vine street, at 9:30 o'clock Friday evening. Death resulted from a short illness due to uraemic poisoning, the deceased having been sick scarcely a week.

Mrs. Young was aged 74 years 11 months and 21 days. She was born in Crawford county where she lived about 20 years, later moving to Kirkpatrick this county and finally to this city. She was a prominent member in the First Christian church of this city. She was a prominent member of the First Christian church of this city and was active in various religious circles.

A family of six children survive. They are Mrs. Agnes Rhynsnyder and Mrs. Jermina Warren of Sullivan, Ill.; Mrs. Elmyer McCoy of Salem, Ill.; Mrs. Rosetta Howes of Brooklyn, Ill.; Mrs. W. L. Lucas of this city; and Mr. Hershel Young of Kirkpatrick, a half sister, Mrs. Adda Hurr of Kansas City, Missouri and three sisters, Mrs. Amanda Ernslinger and Mrs. Mary Linn of Marion and Mrs. Sarah Harris of Wyandot county, are also living. Two brothers John Kerr of Bucyrus and Steven Kerr of Big Island also survive.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Interment will be made at Kirkpatrick.

Will you come to the baby show,

The Delaware Journal-Herald of Friday, gives the following account of a party given for Miss Olive Critchet, formerly of Marion:

"Miss Clara Denison entertained on Thursday evening with a six-o'clock dinner in compliment to Miss Olive Critchet, whose engagement has been recently announced. Miss Critchet will wed Mr. Rolin Clark, of Clarksburg, the date of the wedding not being as yet announced, although coming in the fall. A spoon shower had been prepared and was served to the bride-to-be as a seventh course of the dinner, the shower looking very beautiful when presented on a tray. Purple clematis was used in decorating the dining room and table and covers were laid for fourteen. After the dinner, music was furnished by the Misses Allyn, Irma Lewis, and Elizabeth Badley and Miss Moore gave some fine selections."

Mrs. J. H. Smeltzer nicely entertained a small company of friends at her home south of the city Friday afternoon. The hours from 2 until 5 o'clock were pleasantly spent at music and various social diversions. The home was nicely decorated with plants and flowers. At 5 o'clock an elegant four-course dinner was served. Miss Vera Freeman assisted the hostess in the dining room. Those present were Mrs. Fred Stoup, Mrs. Morganthaler, Mrs. Sarah Shultz, Mrs. Wolfinger and Mrs. Henry Shaffner.

Mrs. M. L. Alexander pleasantly entertained the members of the I. N. club Friday afternoon, at her home on Dix avenue. Nearly all the club members were present and the afternoon was taken up with various social diversions. Refreshments were served. The guests of the club were Mrs. Williams and daughter Nellie, of Nashville Tennessee.

The club will meet again next Friday at the home of Mrs. Rolla Prettyman on Dix avenue.

EARL EVERETT DIES TODAY

Youth Succumbs to Typhoid Fever
This Afternoon.

Earl Everett, aged 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Everett, residing two miles northeast of La Rue, died at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. His demise was due to typhoid fever. Besides the parents one sister, Miss Mabel Everett survives. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Will you come to the baby show,

R. C. McCOLLUM INJURED

Falls from Wheel and Now is Unable to Walk.

R. C. McCollum of South Prospect street, bookkeeper for the Fairbanks Steam Shovel company, is confined to his home today, as a result of an accident which occurred Friday afternoon. Mr. McCollum was riding a bicycle on Columbia street and was carrying several articles when he suddenly struck an obstruction and was violently thrown from his wheel.

Mr. McCollum was not seriously hurt, although he is unable to walk and so will be confined to his home for several days.

For dancing lessons call on Schwing-er. Phone 1500.

RECITAL AT PROSPECT

Young Musician Delights Friends
With His Work.

Paul B. Gast, a prominent Prospect musician who for several years has been studying under Prof. Mason of Delaware, gave his first organ recital before a large audience in the Lutheran church at Prospect, Friday night. The young man delighted his friends with his brilliant work on the pipe organ.

Mr. Gast was assisted by Miss Gertrude Flossie Stiffler, soprano and Miss Zeyo Johnson, contralto both of Prospect. At the conclusion of the program a free-will offering was taken for the benefit of the participants of the excellent concert.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

THE KNIGHTS WILL PICNIC

Members of Marian Lodge K.
of P. Plan Outing.

GO TO GLENMARY PARK

Two C. D. & M. Cars Have Been Chartered.

July 24 the Date—Crescent Pathfinders Install Officers—Spanish War Veterans—Lodge News.

Wayside Rose, Rebekah Lodge, met in its hall in West Center street, Friday evening, with a good attendance. One candidate was initiated.

Following the initiation the newly elected officers were installed by Mrs. L. E. Cooper.

The new officers are Miss Mary Wasson, noble grand; Miss Ella Schaffer, vice grand; Mrs. L. E. Cooper, right supporter to noble grand; Mrs. Benson, left supporter to noble grand; Mrs. Mason, right supporter to vice grand; Mrs. Austin, left supporter to vice grand; Mrs. Morris, conductor; Clyde Bacon, chaplain; Miss Gertrude Lane, inside guardian; Mrs. Clara Lane, outside guardian.

After the installation, the lodge was entertained by the new noble and vice grands. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was spent. Arrangements were made to have a called meeting of the lodge next Wednesday, at which time plans will be discussed for entertaining the lodge in Kenton, July 26.

Crescent Lodge No. 40, Pathfinders, held their regular meeting at its hall on South Main street, Friday evening. The attendance was unusually large. Two candidates were initiated and 10

Come Tonight or Monday

$20, $22, $25, suits, now $15. All colors, all sizes, made by The House of Kuppenheimer.

HUGHES & CLEARY

Main and Center Streets

applications were balloted upon, after which the officers for the ensuing six months were installed. It was decided to accept the invitation of the Central Christian Church to attend the patriotic services Sunday afternoon. The members will meet at the hall at 2:30.

The officers installed are Marion R. Smith, president; F. Corey, vice president; Mrs. Clay White, chaplain; Miss Sue Schurle, guard; Logan Peters, outer guard; Wesley Doublikin, sergeant at arms; Nelson Hatch, guide; William Bauer, treasurer; J. M. Tucker, collector; Miss Mayne Redd, corresponding secretary; Miss Gladys Corey, assistant editor; Miss Anna Bauer, musical director; J. A. Wideman, Lee Cooper and Fred Schurle, trustees.

The Spanish American War Veterans met last night with a fair attendance and transacted considerable business. Richard Miller was elected as delegate and C. B. Shetterly alternate, to the national encampment to be held at Cedar Point in September. Resolutions were adopted on the death of Harry Farrell which occurred several days ago in Indiana. Arrangements were made for a social to be held under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bondley of Park street, on Tuesday evening.

At a well attended meeting of Marian Lodge, No. 402, Knights of Pythias, held in its hall on East Center street, Friday evening, arrangements were made for the lodge's annual picnic, to be held at Glenmary park, near Columbus, Wednesday, July 24.

Two special C. D. & M. cars will carry the picnickers to the park. The first will leave at 1 o'clock and the second at 2 o'clock. The fare for the round trip will be 50 cents. The outing will be for the lodge members and their friends.

The Foresters held a regular meeting Friday night and made arrangements to attend the special services at the Central Christian church Sunday morning. After the business session a social was enjoyed and the lodgemen partook of refreshments at the Sugar Bowl.

Marion lodge of Pathfinders No. 421, will meet at its hall at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon to attend the services at the Central Christian church.

Will you come to the baby show,

Kitchen Articles

Tin Collenders	10c	Egg Beaters	1c
Tin Sieves large size	10c	Scrub Brushes	5c
Tin Sauce Pans	10c	Cream Dippers	4c
Tin Wash Pans	10c	Paring Knives	5c
Zinc Strainers	10c	Tea Strainers	3c
Tin Bread Pans two for 5c		Wooden Spoons	3c
Tin Pie Pans	5c	Iron Spoons	5c
Tin Cake Pans	4c	Clover Egg Beater	5c
Potato Mashers	5c	Towel Racks	10c
Cake Turners	3c	Wire Dish Rags	5c
Mustard Spoon	2c	Can Openers	5c

THE RACKET STORE

CLEARANCE SALE

JULY SALE NOW ON

A Few of Our Wonderful Values

50 beautiful White shirt waist suits. These suits were made to sell at $5.98 and $3.98. Special July sale $3.48 and $2.48. Every size from 34 to 42.

250 shirt waists that sold up to $2. All new, short and long sleeves, open back or front, all sizes from 34 to 42. Special July sale price 99c.

Pictures Framed at a discount. Bring 4 pictures and we will frame one of them Free.

White China Silk Waists, handsomely embroidered, that sold at $2.50, $2.89 and $2.98. Special July sale price $1.98.

100 all wool panama skirts in blue, black and gray, handsome styles, made full. These skirts have sold at $5 all season and extra sizes at $5.50. We offer them for our July sale, in all sizes from 23 inch waist measure to 36 inch at the same price. July special $3.48.

Ask for Profit Sharing Certificates

Shoes at a Discount--Shoes

Get a Talking Machine Free. Ask about it

33 1-3% Off on Millinery—33 1-3%

About 25 summer wrappers, mostly in small sizes, that sold at $1 to $1.25. Special July sale price 49c.

Ask for Profit Sharing Certificates

Corsets

Globe dollar corsets 69c. All sizes 18 to 30, have supporters attached, equal to any dollar corset in the world. Special 69c.

Ask for Profit Sharing Certificates, they are free and valuable.

Wall Paper, Painting and Decorating

The Big Cash Store

North Main Street

GOODSELL'S

Opp. Court House